SPREAD THIS, I TRY TO HELP YOU FROM EUROPE: How the Yellow Vests lost their December 8th 2018 attempt to take Paris

2520

2 months ago by Belgium4Trump +2520 / -0

Before the 6th of January, you HAVE to know what the enemy is going to do, what's going to happen to the Trump/Constitution supporters. The Yellow Vests in France already tried to take the institutions 2 years ago and failed miserably. Here's why.

1. Spread in the country

A lot of French demonstrated in their own town. They wanted to show that all the country was supporting the movement. It was a mistake, too bad for them: the ONLY WAY to overthrow a national swamp is to go to the capital and to focus yourselves on the political institutions. There is no other way.

If you want Trump to be President the 6th of January, you probably have to be ONE MILLION patriots in Washington DC, to outnumber the enemy.

Take care: probably they will try you to organize other meetings and demonstrations across the country, they will say it's too dangerous to go to DC, they will cancel the flights, they will covid you, etc. You know them. They will give you a lot of reasons to stay home. DON'T! GO TO WASHINGTON DC.

2. Beheading

During the night and in the first hours of the day, French police and secret services arrested 1,000-2,000 individuals without any reason in Paris and its suburbs (everywhere, in the trains, in the hotels, when they were walking outside, etc.), to lock them up just for 24 hours. The individuals were targeted. Police knew who were the leaders or the potential leaders, police knew who was really dangerous.

After that the crowd was beheaded and didn't know what to do nor where to go. Take care: your enemy will act a few hours before the big day and if you can't do shit about it, you are screwed. The 6th begins a few hours (a few days?) before the 6th. If you're a leader or an important group of patriots, you'll have to fight BEFORE what you expect.

3. Roadblocks

French police erected roadblocks far away of the "Elysée" (the WH in France) to prevent demonstrators to come too close of President Macron's residence. Police won't let you go where you need to be. (IMHO the only place to be is in Congress, where they're going to elect the President, where the fucking cunt politicians will meet. Not the Supreme Court, not the WH, nor any symbolical place.) They will make you walk far away of the place to be. They will try to redirect you to other symbolical place (see further, 5).

There will be a lot of roadblocks to prevent you to cross the Rubicon (yes, one more Rubicon). As you're beheaded and your leaders are out, they'll put a few guy in front of the crowd to make you walk in a pe citytrip. Be careful, in a crowd humans follow humans.

Take care and think: if you see a roadblock, the way is there. Be the strong guy. Don't be a sheep, don w the others silently. You don't fucking have time to continue walking, you're not here to visit DC. Go through the December 8th 2018 the Yellow Vests took the “Arc de Triomphe”, a symbolical place in Paris. They were proud of themselves, but what did it changed? “Rien”, nothing. Macron was still President by the end of the day. He saved his ass because the Antifas cunts led the Yellow Vests to attack the “Arc de Triomphe” and not the “Elysée”.

To distract you from your attempt, your enemies will offer you symbolical goals to reach… But those won’t give you Trump elected. Take care: secret services or dumb people will try you to lose energy on useless goals.

Focus on your only goal: to have Donald Trump President Elect by the end of the day. You have to (1) prevent the Democrats to arrive in Congress, (2) besiege the fucking swamp until Trump elected, (3) prevent the swamp to get out if Trump isn’t elected, (4) and you know what to do with them if Biden is elected. LOSERS DON’T MAKE HISTORY.

If you can’t reach Congress (and block all its exits, included the secret ones), you will lose.

5. Isolation and bad communication

With the roadblocks, French police had converted Paris in a labyrinth. There was a lot of groups lost in the streets and they were unable to reach each other. It was literally impossible for them to meet the other groups. Furthermore French television was broadcasting images of small groups to say to its audience: “look, they’re not a lot, on the contrary, the citizens support Macron”.

Take care: they will try to isolate you in many ways. Probably you won’t be able to communicate with your phones or to use Internet. And the media will tell the world you’re just a few thousands. If you want to win, you’ll need to help the pedes blocked by the police. If you want to win you need ONE MILLION individuals around the Congress.

6. There’s only ONE chance.

The Yellow Vests lost because they failed in their biggest attempt, the December 8th 2018. After that one they were less people in the streets on the next Saturdays. Never the Yellow Vests have been as strong as they were the 8th of December, nor could they surprise the powerful guys anymore. It was the begin of the end.

YOU WON’T HAVE ANY BIGGEST OPPORTUNITY AS THIS ONE. Be there in Washington DC. Spread the word around you: everybody in DC the 6th of January. Phone your friends, talk about it. Once in your life, take a few days off. America and the World need you in DC. After the 6th it will be to late.

Remember. You’re in DC just for A FEW HOURS. Do it, finish it in a FEW HOURS AT ALL COSTS. If you want Trump to be President, you have to succeed the 6th. You won’t have any other try.

And don’t forget this: you have something French doesn’t have anymore. Guns. They will help. By a lot.

1. Beware of crowd control methods
2. Make sure your group leaders don't get arrested
3. Use apps like Briar for communication
4. Stay safe and don't do anything dumb
5. Have fun while taking country back

Crowd control methods used:

- spreading the crowd using diversions and distractions such as symbolic goals, Antifa etc
- road blocks and riot police blocking streets
- professional agitators and controlled rioting
- blocking communication, switching off internet
- taking down leadership
- spreading disinfo and confusion and rejecting cases has everything to do with INTIMIDATION, fear of repression and threats? Because it went already into their fantasy and serves as a pavlovian trigger warning that if they do something wrong or step out of the line their life will be in serious risk, so they will prefere the easy way out that is giving in to the establishment. They have a carrier and assets to preserve, We humble citizens, on the other hand have nothing to lose. The riots and destructions seen earlier this year served the swamp establishment and billionaire corporations really well by showing WHO is more destructive and WHO they should really fear by not giving what they want. If Jan 6th is nothing but a peaceful march, even if numerous, it won't make any difference. The people have to feel hate and remember what their fighting for and as such the polititians (the RINO senate, legislators, reps) need to FEEL this hate from their constituencies and be assured that should the country fall into turmoil again at least there's another fiercely militia strong enough and awe inspiring to take upon the bad thugs who wreaked havoc in the cities.

48 Kudos to OP, this is the most important and informative and crucial post I've ever seen related to the election.

Our enemy, the swamp, the MSM, the left (they're all the same) have uncountable hours of experience in misdirecting people and castrating movements of good, righteous Americans (remember how they demonized and hamstrung the Tea Party movement?). We can't fall for a single one of their tricks this time.

Trump really needs to tweet this post. The good patriots who are unaware of tDw must see this advice.

That should only be considered if the DC event falls through and Trump allows the system to install Biden. Like the OP said, after the main day, support for the movement dwindled rapidly. But because we are a republic different from the European countries, we are can retake our individual states and that will scare the shit out of DC. But I agree, peaceful protests at state capitals on 1/6 is a useless gesture that will garner no support or attention. The politicians probably won't even be there.

I probably said something like, we shouldn't be secretive about the plan to travel to DC because elities don't fear of seeing a few million people in town one day, which will be gone next day, but they fear of knowing that hundreds of millions KNOW that a few million people will be in town one day. People should make Facebook page to get together and organize the tour in public so that other people know that this is happening. We are not in getting people to vote stage anymore. This is information war, and people didn't seem to understand what war we are in.

I was actually in Paris in 2018 during some of the yellow vest protests and understand what you mean about the chaos. You have given valuable advice especially about mobilization and communication. We should heed your advice.

permalink save report block reply

DonJr2024 2 months ago +18 / -1

17

I would say that while all of that is good advice, you would also be smart to avoid being just one big mass of people.

That leads to easy targets from psycho-fags like antifa and can lead to being immobilized simply from being squished all together. You should have groups of people you trust at all perimeter points, but spread out enough to keep everyone from easily being corralled.

As exciting as the main throng of people will be, the goal should be that if troublemakers come along they can quickly be circled and at the same time kept away from the main group.

permalink parent save report block reply

CuomoisaMassMurderer 2 months ago +5 / -1

4

How would anqueefa be a problem if we're all together?

permalink parent save report block reply

Let's imagine antifa has a balloon full of pee (and that would be one of the safer things they might try). If you have a big mass of people, and nothing more, they can walk up until they are 20 feet away, hurl that balloon and be guaranteed to hit some people who have no possible way to avoid it other than shoving/crushing their own peers.

Now imagine antifa comes with something worse, and hurls it 100 feet into the middle of a huge crowd. Now you can start panic and get people trampling each other.

Even the police could easily decide to suddenly corral everyone making for a very dangerous situation.

There will be a big mass (or a couple big masses). The key is to have some good patriots at t perimeters but spaced out, filtering who gets in and preventing (a) anyone from being able to walk up and attack the main body and (b) having the group cornered/corralled.

And when I say spaced apart, that includes groups that can see trouble and close in from behind and body armor and with weapons. Need to be able to keep them from the main group and circle them quickly before they even know it.

permalink parent save report block reply

▲ 2 ▼ CuomoisaMassMurderer 2 months ago +2 / -0

Sounds like a great idea. What sort of weapons can we get through their checkpoints with? How does Andy Tifa do it?

permalink parent save report block reply

▲ 2 ▼ DonJr2024 2 months ago +2 / -0

Not sure. But if checkpoints are established and people are herded into areas, we're already in trouble. If I was there and going to be one of the brave ones guarding against antifa, I'd think helmets are important and masks/goggles in case they spray something (or cops do).

permalink parent save report block reply

▲ 0 ▼ CuomoisaMassMurderer 2 months ago +1 / -1

Gasmasks would be basically essential. Are they allowed? Anqueefa certainly gets to use them.

12 I remember watching that on T_D. It was a close run thing for Macron. Very close. Yellow vests broke into ministries and got pretty close to the Elysée. I remember that they had to bring in a lot of secret police to do the dirty work of stopping the revolt. It was heartbreaking when the yellow vests failed.

About the guns... it's not that easy. We'll be outgunned no matter what, and the cops will mow us down if the crowd fires on them. If the crowd simply pushes through barriers without firing a shot they'll have a harder time firing on us, but they'll have tear gas and shit.
